Camden, N.J. ~ The Hammond Group, Inc., a multi-service company in healthcare, community corrections, behavioral and mental health treatment, and home health services has opened a new office in New Castle, Delaware.

The Hammond Group, Inc., a nationally licensed healthcare provider, offers services throughout the states of New Jersey, Maryland, Pennsylvania and parts of North Carolina and Virginia. The company, is divided into several divisions all related to providing excellence in community-based therapeutic services.

"We have seven core services and seven distinct divisions all with the goal of treating individuals and helping them regain their physical and mental health, says President and CEO Greg Hammond. He continues, "We can help fight alcohol and drug dependency, children with autism, people scarred by abuse... We also provide skilled nurses working in pediatrics, geriatrics and home health aides. We are here to help families."

Founded in 2006 by Gregory K. Hammond, J.D., The Hammond Group, Inc. is a private corporation providing community based therapeutic services for at risk children and families. "We feel we can help all families because we feel that our staff is a true reflection of America," claims Hammond. "We have many bilingual clinicians, behavioral assistants, mentors, and staff. Languages spoken by staff range from Spanish, Portuguese, Mandarin, Taiwanese, Urdu, Bengali, French, Twi, and several African dialects," says Hammond.

As CEO and President Hammond brings over thirty years experience as an executive, administrator, counselor and educator. He worked as a therapist to children with Asperger Syndrome, Autism and substance abuse problems. As a former Executive Director of the International Policy Institute, Hammond has served as counsel to governments and corporations in Africa, West Indies, South and Central America. Hammond, as the founder of The Public Law Project, Inc. a non-profit organization, has worked closely with incarcerated adult and juveniles by teaching them the law.

Hammond (left, flanked by Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter and New Castle County Executive Chris Coons at the recent New Castle County Chamber of Commerce Annual Dinner) has served on the Board of Directors of the American Cancer Society and the Pennsylvania Clean-Air Council. Ivy League educated, Pennsylvania and Columbia, Hammond received his Juris Doctorate from Georgetown University Law Center where he was a Henry Lucey Scholar.

The New Castle County location for The Hammond Group, Inc. is at 12 Penns Way in the New Castle County Chamber of Commerce Building just off Commons Boulevard in New Castle. They are available online at www.hammondgrp.com.
